It is to the benefit of our clients that our firm develops and maintains a relationship of quality with our insurers. To do this, we work with each company to develop the types of business, clients and product line that they desire. Some insurers (those marked with an asterisk) recognize our efforts with a contingent profit (commission) agreement. Contingent profit is not guaranteed and may depend on growth, performance, losses (claims), retention and various increased services our firm can provide to the insurers. For more information with regards to specific insurers, please visit their individual web sites.
